

Irish Dancing Workshop with Ronan McCormack

2nd – 3rd December 2017, Wiesbaden, Germany

Ronan McCormack is one of the world's most sought after Irish Dance choreographers. He began his training at the age of 3 in Dublin and can look back at 20 years of competitive career, with Irish, British, North American and World successes. Ronan is also an accomplished musician (B.A. Music at the Waterford Institute of Technology in 1994). During his last year at college he was chosen to be part of the original Riverdance troupe for the Eurovision Song contest. He subsequently toured the UK, USA and Canada with "Riverdance-The Show" – not only dancing with the show: He also played keyboards with the Riverdance Orchestra.

He returned to Ireland in 2000 to sit the TCRG examination, and followed this with the ADCRG. Since then, he has been in constant international demand as choreographer and adjudicator (Ireland, USA, Japan and Norway) and is on the faculty of the University of Limerick, providing master classes to the students of the Traditional Irish Music and Dance B.A. program. Having also trained in tap and modern dance,

Ronan has appeared regularly on television in Ireland (e.g. as a "dancing giant" in "Ella Enchanted", in RTE's "Celebrity Jigs 'n' Reels" and in "Jigs & Wigs - The Extreme World Of Irish Dancing").
